Dear Respected Partner Country Coordinators and Colleagues,

Subject: Request of nominations for the scholarship provided by National Institute of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India

We are pleased to inform you that PPD with the support of the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare (MoHFW), Government of India (GoI) is offering ten (10) scholarships for the session 2020-2021 to study One Year Post-Graduate Diploma in Public Health Management (PGDPHM). The scholarship is for the candidates of PPD member countries.

The course is likely to commence from 10th August 2020 at National Institute of Health and Family Welfare, New Delhi, India. The aim of the course is to enhance the managerial capabilities of the young professionals in the field of public health.

Government of India will meet the expenses related to tuition, training materials, boarding and lodging and will provide a stipend of 5000/ Indian Rupees (Rupees Five thousand only) per month. The Travel (to and fro), medical insurance and Visa expense will be met by the sponsoring institution or the candidate.

In order to be eligible for the scholarship, the candidate must

1. Be working in the central, state and local governments with at least three years of service experience in the health sector.
2. Be holding MBBS/BDS/AYUSH graduate or should have passed B.Sc. in nursing/health, science/natural science or Bachelors of occupation therapy/physiotherapy or MA in social science or an equivalent qualification.
3. Have good communication and understanding skills in English language since English is the medium of the instruction of the course.

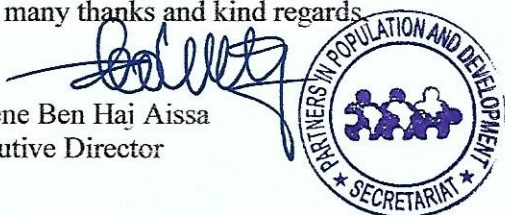

You are kindly requested to send us the nomination along with duly filled application form, CV, passport size photo and the necessary academic and job certificates for the candidate before or on 27 May 2020.

Details information is given in the attached brochure. The application should be sent to [tahrima@ppdsec.org] to the attention of Ms. Tahrima Khan, Senior Program Officer of PPD.

We are looking forward to hearing from you soon.

With many thanks and kind regards,
